

Echo Nation

The consulate's Mary Deady, George Heslin, Roisin Fitzpatrick and Mary Pat Kelly enjoying the opening.

Enjoying the opening were (l-r) Jeff Cleary of the Irish American Heritage Museum, Hanora O'Dea Kilkenny, artist Roisin Fitzpatrick, and Noel Kilkenny, Consul General of Ireland.

Fitzpatrick's Art Expo draws viewers to consulate

ARTIST Roisin Fitzpatrick's Art Expo, which reflects the artist's love of light as a medium, is currently on show at the Irish Consulate in Manhattan and has been both drawing dedicated visitors and attracting the eye of attendees at consulate events. The exhibit was recently formally opened by the American Ireland Fund's Loretta Brennan Glucksman at what could only be described as a glittering event.

PHOTOS BY HIGGINSPHOTONYC.COM.

Roisin Fitzpatrick with Ronan Downes.

Ann Murtagh of the Fitzpatrick Hotel group and artist Roisin Fitzpatrick.

NYC Commissioner Brian Andersson, Roisin Fitzpatrick, Monica Horgan and Jeff Cleary.

Martin Dunne, Roisin Fitzpatrick and Maura Kelly.

Loretta Brennan Glucksman, Roisin Fitzpatrick and Jeff Cleary.

Roisin Fitzpatrick with Caroline Duggan of Keltic Dreams.

Marie Reilly, recently appointed press and information officer Peter Ryan, and Anne Condrón, all with the Irish Consulate.

Roisin Fitzpatrick with Bill Whelan, composer of Riverdance, and Jean Kennedy Smith, former U.S. ambassador to Ireland.

Loretta Brennan Glucksman formally opens the exhibition.

Don O'Neill with Catherine and John Condon.